2. Social Dancing

What ideas do you have for what NASSPDA can do for social dancers? How might you be willing to help?

3. What else would you like to see NASSPDA do for the North American same-sex partner dance community?

NOTES

Attendees: Barbara Zoloth, Lee Fox, Winter Held, Kurt Popp (from San Diego) and 2 of his dancers. Kurt had also been at the Sacramento comp. He's created a studio in San Diego called Diversity Dancesport and attended April Follies with 4 or 5 of his dancers. Unfortunately, I forgot to pass around a sign-up sheet, but I will retrieve their contact information from the registration forms.

We updated Kurt and company on NASSPDA activities listed above. Winter provided an update on the "history project". She has a computer person working on creating a less ambitious linkable site with the basic information about the history of NASSPDA to date.

Kurt suggested that the Cleveland Gay Games include "Disco-Fox", a dance form that is apparently very popular in Europe and, according to him, is danceable with almost anyone.
